CONTENTS.

VOLUME XI.

No. 1. The Author of the Theological Dialogues to Mr. Richard Carlile with the fourth dialogue, on the solar deities assembled at Bow Street disputing their precedence before Mr. Justice Oldmixon.

No. 2. Letter 2 to Mr. William Cobbett from Richard Carlile, containing a notice of a revolution in Chili on the subject of church property—Letter from J. G. recommending a union between all the dissenters from the established church—Notice of the editors of the Dorset County Chronicle and New Times Newspapers—Article taken from The New Times' on the progress of irreligion in Austria —Letter 1 to Dr. Stoddart by R. Carlile—Notice to the readers of Anti-christian books—Prospects of the Logos at the commencement of the year 1825.—Note to Allen Davenport—Letter from and to Mr. David Henry of Dundee with subscription.

No. 3. Ireland—her oppressions considered—Letter to the King, on Ireland—Do.—, with a question, if not one of the many thousand well paid priests can shew the good foundation of religion?—Do—, on the question of the existing power of the king of this country—Letter to the Archbishop of Canterbury, asking his Grace to find one of his order to defend the Christian Religion upon three propositions—Crude Mercury—Case of James Herd of Aberdeen —To Parson James of Birmingham by John Lee—Letter from and to Joseph Lawton with subscription from the Salford Reading Society—To the Chief Justice Abbott by Mr. S. F. Waddington—Letter 2 to Dr. Stoddart—To Mr. Rogers the itinerant lecturer on Astronomy by a lover of truth—Astronomers and Astrologers considered and contrasted Notices and subscriptions.

No. 4. A display of learning or a literary and political squabble with the Editor of the Dorset County Chronicle—Letter to the King, with a rescript of the Roman Emperor Galerius concerning the Christians.

No. 5. Suppressed pamphlet of 1796 restored—Anecdote on Crude Mercury.

No. 6. More learning!—Letter to Mr. R. Carlile from Zephyrus of Manchester on the late Lord Byron, with observations in answer. Letter 3 to Mr. William Cobbett—The secrets of Crystamancy divulged by R. Whalley of Manchester—Note on the subject by R. Carlile—Subscription from Bristol with a letter in answer—Letter to the King on the principles of Materialism—Copy of a petition to the House of Lords with letters to the archbishop of Canterbury and the King on the subject—Letter from Thomas Ashley on his cure of urinary obstruction by Crude Mercury.

No. 7. Letter to George Garland Esquire reviewing his Chaplain Richman's first assize sermon—Letter to the Rev. Mr. Wood, Chaplain of Dorchester Gaol—Impromptu on Simon Peter and Sim on Magus.

No. 8. Letter to George Garland Esquire in review of Mr. Richman's second assize sermon—Bristol subscription continued.

No. 9. Letter 4 to Mr. William Cobbett including the case of the seduction of Mary Catherine Cadiere by a Jesuit—An answer to Mr. Webb's Letter and Essay against the resurrection of the body in a letter to that gentleman by J. P.—Letter from and to Mr. John Harper of Manchester with a subscription—Letter from and to Mr. Samuel Combs of Rochdale with a subscription.

No. 10. Letter to Mr. Christopher Arden, Mayor of Dorchester, Surgeon to Dorchester Gaol &c., including a letter from R. L. Brewer—Notice of John Clarke's Letters to Dr. Adam Clarke, and of the Newgate Magazine—Letter from and to Mr. James affleck of Edinburgh with a subscription—Metaphysics by Shebago—Materialism and Spirituality considered by Do.—Anecdote of a dying Antichristian and a Vicar.

No. 11. Letter to old William Wilberforce—Recipes for Belloste's Pill—Letter to the King on a new scheme of Christianity—Proposals for the establishment of a general association to be called Zerotarian Catholic Christians—To the Editor of the Republican by J. G. with notes by R. Carlile—Letter to theEditor of The Republican and to Mr. M. Craston of Manchester by R. Whalley —A novelty—A Hudibrastic ode to the world maker by R. T. Webb Esquire—A brief history of prosecutions for blasphemy —Notice to a correspondent and of The Moralist.

No. 12. To the Christian Judge Bailey, on the Trial of Henry Lees—Rejected letter to the Editor of the 'Catholic Friend'—Letter to the King on Freemasonry—Letter from a Devonshire Infidel—Reflections on Horseback Nos. 1 and 2—Letter to the King on Mr. Justice Bailey's conduct at the trial of Henry Lees—Do. on Free discussion and Mr. Peel's Jury Bill—Letter from John Lawton of Manchester—Letter from and to Mr. James Smith of Fordmoss with a subscription.

No. 13. Letter 2 to old William Wilberforce—Wisdom governed by Folly or a lesson for Mr. Huskisson—Letter from James Watson in answer to J. P. on the resurrection of the body—Letter from a Medical Friend—Newspaper report of Mr. Hume's presenting a petition to the House of Commons for R. Carlile—Copy of a letter by R. Carlile taken from the Sheffield Independent—Questions proposed by Holy Gas to the Worshippers of the Holy Ghost.

No. 14. Letter to the King on the case of George Hale—Letter to the Archbishop of Canterbury on his neglect of a petition to the House of Lords---Religion is vice illustrated by two cases reported in the New Times Newspaper and an extract from Mrs. Graham's Journal of a residence in Chili—Reflections on Horse back No. 3, 4 and 5---Fragment by Elihu Palmer on the rights of man---Further notice of Red Jacket the Indian Chief---Letter to Mr. Carlile by S. F. Waddington---Letter from and to Mr. Gavin Park of Glasgow with a subscription---Letter from and to Mr. Moses Colclough of Nottingham with a subscription---A call to unbelievers byShebago---An address spoken at the Glasgow Anniversary of the birth of Thomas Paine for 1825 by William Reid.

No. 15. Letter from and to Mr. George Weir of Aberdeen with a subscription---Jehovah, the terrible God of the Jews, and Satan, the busy Christian devil, compared by Shebago---Religious controversy considered by Do.---Letter from Aberdeen to Mess. Campion &c.---Notice of the Christian Evidence Society by a correspondent.

No. 16. Letter to the King on the progress of Republican Principles---Do. on Catholic Emancipation as contrasted with mental emancipation---Critique on one of Dr. Spurzheim's lectures---Letter and Essay by R. T. Webb Esq. on the possibility of the immaculate conception---Immaculate Conception, as considered in Spain, being an extract of a Note from Doblado's Letters---The Deity considered by Shebago---Religion considered by Do.---Copy of a letter and a petition sent to Lord Eldon for the House of Lords---Letter to Mr. Peel on his Jury Bill.

No. 17. Letter from and to Mr. John Goldsmith of Hambledon to Mr. Peel, accompanied with a correspondence with the Dorset Magistrates---Further notice of the Christian Evidence Society, with a prospectus of its professions---On the absurdity of the Jewish Chronology by Phocion To Mr. George Hall by Amicus.---Notice of the death of Mr. Joseph Ellerker.

No. 18. What is love?---Constantine's decree against Arius---Letter from and to James Brown of Coventry---Letter to the King on the newspaper proofs of the progress of republicanism.---Do. on monarchy---Effects of drunkenness and religion compared.

No. 19. Letter to the King on the Corn Bill, Paper Money, Funding System, Debt &c.—A description taken from the Bible of the Jew-Christian God—Letter to William M'Gavin Esq. in vindication of Mr. Owen by James. H. Simpson of Glasgow---Laws, lawgivers, priests and kings considered by Shebago---Human happiness; causes for and against it considered by Do.

No. 20. An anniversary discourse, delivered before the New York Historical Society, on the Common Law, by William Sampson Esq.

No 21. Letter to Mr J. Richards, Schoolmaster of Hackney---An explanation of the Apocalypse, or Revelation of St. John, by Alexander Smyth---Reflections on horseback Nos. 6 and 7---Letter from and to Mr. Robert Stickland of London with a subscription ---Letter from and to Mr. Joseph Wright and other subscribers of North Shields with a subscription.

No. 22. Onthe rejection of the Roman Catholic disabilities bill by the House of Lords May 17, 1825.---Correspondence between Thomas Turton, Joseph Pearce and Richard Carlile, on the subject of Mr. Webb's Essay on the impossibility of the resurrection of the body---Two Letters to the Editor of the Freethinking Christian's magazine by No Deist---Mr. T. R. Perry's petition to the House of Commons---Letter to the King on Mr. Sampson's Discourse--- Do. on Mr. Peel's conduct in the case of R. Carlile---Oration by Elihu Palmer on the twenty first anniversary of American Independence.

No. 23. Letter to Sir Francis Burdett---Golden age---Atheism and Morality---Reprint of a curious India Pamphlet---Mr. Palmer's Oration concluded.

No. 24. Presentation of a petition to the House of Commons from R. Carlile and others by Mr. Brougham with observations ---Letter to the King on Mr. Peel's generosity and progress in free discussion---Letter from Mr. R. T. Webb on Serjeant Arabin's conduct at the Old Bailey Sessions' House---Letter from and to Mrs. James Green of Halifax with a subscription---Petition to the House of Lords and Letter from Hull---Letter from and to Mr. George Broughton of Portsea with a subscription---Letter from Mr. T. R. Perry to Mr. Secretary Peel and a Petion---Letter from Mr. W. V. Holmes.---Petition to the House of Commons from Glasgow---Note on Freemasonry---Notice of leaving 84 Fleet Street &c.

No. 25. A Lecture by the Rev. Mr. Heineker of Bradford Yorkshire, the Unitarian Preacher of that town, on the question and attributes of a Deity, answered by Leucippus---Two Letters to the King.

No. 26. A Letter to John Herbert Browne Esquire of Weymouth, a member of the Vice Society and a Visiting Magistrate for Dorchester Gaol: with a list of the names of the members of that society and a prospectus of its purposes criticised and exposed.